

Library Academy: Tech Boot Camp 2017

“If You Had a Million Dollars” Conversation starters / prompts

- What kind of programming do you think is missing at your library?
  - Coding for teens
  - Computer literacy for adults?
  - Overnight code camps?
- If you wanted to do mobile programming what would what look like?
  - Pop up hotspots?
  - Community centers?
  - School partnerships?
  - Elder hostels?
  - Astronomy nights?
- If you could take one room at your library and re-do it from scratch, what would that look like?
  - Entrepreneurial space
  - Wired meeting room
  - Hi tech children's area
  - Gaming lab
  - Classroom extension
  - Music lab
- If you could build a makerspace at every branch, what is the shortest list of tech that would be included (i.e., what “makes” a makerspace?
  - 3D printing
  - VR
  - Robots
  - Coding
- If you could circulate one piece of tech that you don't currently, what would that be?
  - 3D printer
  - Mobile hotspot
- What's the one piece of technology you think would bring new patrons to your library?